

Black History & Heritage Day

Did You Say “Black” British Columbia?

Handel Wright is author, Professor and Director of UBC Centre for Culture, Identity and Education.

Professor Wright explores the politics of the today’s absence of Blackness in BC. He addresses both the purpose and effects of the erasure of a substantial part of black history; and the projects that name and document Twentieth Century Black BC. There is an urgent need to strongly assert that Black Lives Matter, in historical, contemporary, geographical and political terms, despite constituting a small percentage of the BC population.
