

At a Crossroads: the Celtic Connection Where Do I Go From Here?

Are you at a research crossroads?

The VGS Annual Seminar will be of interest if you:

- have a specific Celtic national interest (Irish, Scottish, English, Welsh) and have not been able to get results with UK records;
- are at the point where you have done your research, and repeated it a few times in the hopes of finding something different;
- have stopped your research and said "where can I go from here?";
- are bogged down in repetitive research and lost interest.

Seminar Details: October 26, 2013, from 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM

At the Vancouver Island Technology Park (VITP) Business Centre, Building #200, 4464 Markham St., Victoria, BC

Registration: Advance registration is required.

Before October 11th VGS members $65.00, non-members $75.00

After October 11th VGS members $70.00, non-members $80.00

Deadline for all registrations is October 18th, 2013

Speakers:

Eunice Robinson & Lorraine Irving: two joint sessions

(1) Comparison and contrasts of Celtic Civil Registration

(2) Registration and Census Records - Often referred to as 'bridging documents

Scott Munro: Basics of the Future - the Technology Petting Zoo of the Greater Victoria Library visits the Seminar and test run

John McLaren: Unlocking the Treasures of Scottish, British and Irish Wills

Additional program details to be announced on the Victoria Genealogical Society website www.victoriags.org/

Still have questions? Contact seminar@victoriags.org